The National Antique Oldsmobile Club is a non-profit corporation founded in 1981. It is devoted to encouraging the preservation, restoration and enjoyment of Oldsmobiles built from 1897 through 1976. Membership is open to all those interested in vintage Oldsmobiles, and ownership of such a car is not required. Members receive Runabouts to Rockets, the monthly publication of the club. The National Meet of the club, held in the summer, usually at a resort type location, provides a chance to meet friends in the hobby, compare notes and see some outstanding Oldsmobiles.
